APPENDIX B:

STATEMENT ON JOINT WORKS

STATEMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS IN WORKS OF SHARED AUTHORSHIP

Books

Coles, S J and Rowley, J E (1996) Word 7: a progressive course for new users. DP Publications.

Coles, S J and Rowley, J E (1997) Access 7: a progressive course for new users. DP Publications.

The above two items are jointly authored with each author contributing approximately half of the text. The original concept and structure of the books was my creation, my co-author has made a significant contribution in development organisation and file management.

Fisher, S M and Rowley, J E (1992) BOOKSHELF: a guide for librarians and systems managers. Aldershot: Gower.

A joint authored book with both authors contributing approximately half of the chapters. My co-author took responsibility for editing and drawing the book together.

Rowley, J E and Turner, C M D (1978) The Dissemination of information. Andre Deutsch.

A joint authored work in which I wrote all of the chapters except two, and acted as editor.

Refereed Journal Articles

Butcher, D R and Rowley, J E (1987) The Searcher Information Interface Project. Journal of Information Science 13, 187-195.

Butcher, D R and Rowley, J E (1989) The Searcher/Information Interface Project 2: Manual and on-line searching-pilot study. Journal of Information Science, 15, 109-114.

The SIIP project used student work created through my co-author's contact with students. We jointly conceived and implemented the project. The computing and analysis was my work, as was the writing of the articles.

Butcher, DR and Rowley, J E (1994) A Comparison of pricing strategies for bibliographical databases on CD-ROM and equivalent printed products. The Electronic Library, 12 (3), June, 169-175.

Butcher, D and Rowley, J E (1996) Pricing strategies for business information on CD-ROM's. Journal of Information Science 22(1), 39-46.

I provided the theoretical and conceptual basis for an in-depth analysis of specific pricing structures which was conducted jointly between myslef and my co-author.

Clarke, I and Rowley J E (1995) GIS and DSS in Strategic Retail Locational Planning. International Journal of Retail and Distribution Management, 23 (3), 4-10.

The work built on earlier work by my co-author, but this article was essentially conceived and written by me.

Coles, S and Rowley, J E (1995) Revisiting decision trees. Management Decision, 33 (8), 46-50.

The conceptual framework in this article is mine; the computing is my co-authors.

Coles, S J and Rowley, J E (1996) Spreadsheet modelling for management decision making. Industrial Management and Data Systems 96 (7), 17-23.

A joint authored work involving both authors in most aspects of its creation.

Fisher, S M and Rowley, J E (1994) Management Information and Library Management Systems. Electronic Library, 12 (2), 109-117.

This work arose from the synergy between work that I was conducting on management information systems, and work that my co-author was conducting on library management systems.

Peacefull, L and Rowley, J E (1995) A review of the Geographical Information Systems marketplace in the United Kingdom. Information Services and Use, 15 (2) 103-116.

My work. Genuine joint authorship failed.

Rowley, J E and Butcher, D R (1988) The Searcher Information Interface Project - Final Report. Journal of Information Science 14, 355-363.

The SIIP project used student work created through my co-author's contact with students. We jointly conceived and implemented the project. The computing and analysis was my work, as was the writing of the articles.

Papers in Non-Refereed Journals, Non-Referred Papers in Refereed Journals and Other Publications

Butcher, D R and Rowley, J E (1995) Is electronic publication viable? Aslib Proceedings, 47 (10), October, 229-232.

Shared development of conceptual framework. Largely authored by myself.

Coles, S J and Rowley, J E (1996) Presentation with Microsoft PowerPoint, Computer Education, 84, November, 2-7

Joint work on writing and design.

Cuthbert, P Rowley, J E and Slack, F (1995) Analysis and synthesis in construct formulation during the research process. Management Research News, 18 (1/2), 1-8

I draw together two different conceptual approaches, offered by each of the other authors into a comparative and analytical article.

Rowley, J E and Freeman, M (1995) An information systems approach to teaching IT skills. Computer Education, 80, June, 5-7.

My co-author's concepts interpreted by me into a concrete proposal.

Rowley, J E and Coles, S J (1996) The next step: acquiring more advanced information technology skills. Computer Education 83, June, 8-10

The course was my concept, but it was implemented by my co-author after my departure. The article, jointly authored reflects on the success of this experiment.
